Part 01: Written

Marks:30 Time: 2.00 Hours

Lima walked through the woods, she heard the chirping of birds and the rustling of leaves. Suddenly, she spotted a small rabbit hopping by. Lima followed the rabbit, curious to see where it was going. The rabbit led her to a clearing where a beautiful waterfall flowed into a crystal-clear pond. Lima was amazed by the sight. She sat down near the pond and enjoyed her picnic lunch. While eating, Lima noticed a tiny injured bird near her. It had hurt its wing and could not fly. Lima felt sad for the bird and gently picked it up. She took it home and cared for it until it could fly again. Lima named the bird Sunny because its feathers were as bright as the sun. She made a comfortable nest for Sunny in a cozy box with soft cotton. Lima fed Sunny small bits of bread and water daily, hoping it would get better soon. Days turned into weeks, and Sunny's wing slowly healed. Lima was overjoyed to see Sunny getting stronger. One sunny morning, she opened the box, and Sunny fluttered its wings. It was ready to fly! Lima took Sunny outside and released it into the sky. Sunny flew higher and higher, circling above Lima. It chirped happily, thanking Lima for her care and love.
